

GRAND ERIE DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD

invites applications for the position of

Casual Early Childhood Educators

The Board requires qualified casual employees to be available, often on short notice, to replace permanent early childhood educators (ECEs) during their absences. Applicants must have regular availability to accept assignments.

Casual ECEs must be a graduate of an ECE program at a community college and a member in good standing with the Ontario College of Early Childhood Educators. Experience with primary-aged students preferred.

If your qualifications, positive attitude and commitment to excellence make you an ideal candidate for this position, please submit your application, marked "personal and confidential", which includes a complete resume, cover letter (one document if submitted electronically) with the names and telephone numbers of at least three professional references; your current supervisor must be provided as a reference.

Applicants with a disability that requires an accommodation to enable their participation in the interview process should advise the Board when contacted for an interview. Any assessment and selection materials and processes used in the interview process can be made available in an accessible format, upon request in advance.

All new employees are required to provide an original Police Record Check (which includes a "vulnerable sector search") acceptable to the Board prior to the commencement of employment.

All submissions are subject to a screening process and some applicants may not be granted an interview.

We thank all applicants for their interest but only those considered for interview will be contacted
