

GRAND ERIE DISTRICT SCHOOL BOARD
Invites Applications for
Mohawk Language Teacher

The Grand Erie District School Board invites applications for the position of long-term occasional Mohawk Language Teacher, 0.67 FTE, for Semester 2, effective Feb 2, 2018 to June 29/18 (or until permanent incumbent returns, whichever occurs first). The current timetable is 1 section at Brantford Collegiate VS and 1 section at Pauline Johnson Collegiate VS. Preference will be given to applicants who are currently members in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers and possess a current Certificate of Qualification (Intermediate/Senior divisions). Candidates must have proficiency, both written and verbal, in Mohawk language. In addition, preference will be given to candidates who have attained intermediate level, both written and verbal, in the Mohawk language according to the American Council on the teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) proficiency guidelines. It is also necessary to have a working knowledge of the Haudenosaunee history and culture.

Applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, a copy of their current Certificate of Qualification, a copy of recent teacher evaluation reports and/or copy of all practice teaching reports, and the names of three (3) references (at least one of which must be a current principal/supervisor, if applicable). All application packages must be submitted by January 23, 2018, to:
