

Indigenous Wellness and Addictions Instructor - Part Time

Date of Posting: July 5, 2018

Closing Date: July 17, 2018

Overview:

Six Nations Polytechnic is offering a 2-year college diploma program in Indigenous Wellness and Addictions at their Brantford Campus. We are currently recruiting for Instructors to start in September 2018.

If you are interested in playing a role in developing leaders and shaping the future of members of our community, then we encourage you submit your resume for this exciting position.

Responsibilities

This exciting role requires the successful candidate(s) to develop and provide a holistic learning environment that includes designing, updating, delivering and evaluating curriculum in a variety of areas in the Indigenous Wellness and Addictions program. These areas include but are not limited to: Traditional healing, learning and teaching, Cultural specific helping, Challenges facing Indigenous communities, Interviewing, reporting and documenting, Addictions counselling skills, Relapse preventions, Multiculturalism, Psychology and sociology. A full list of the curriculum can be found on our website www.snpolytechnic.com.

The instructor is responsible for providing academic leadership and developing an effective learning environment for students. This includes designing, revising and updating courses/curriculum; teaching assigned courses; consulting with stakeholders (faculty, community and industry partners); defining course objectives and evaluating student comprehension of objectives; utilizing a variety of instruction medium/resources; and provide individualize instruction where necessary. Other duties may be assigned as necessary.

Qualifications

The successful applicant must have:

- Bachelor's Degree in Social Work, Psychology, Counselling or a related field of study; an equivalent combination of postsecondary education and related practical work experience may be considered; graduate degree preparation is considered an asset
- Extensive Indigenous knowledge relating to approaches to mental health, wellness and addictions prevention and counselling
- Minimum 2 years of teaching experience, or equivalent, preferably in a college setting
- Minimum 5 years practical experience related to the field of study
- Thorough knowledge of the multi-dimensional nature of the Wellness and Addictions field.
- Proven dedication to excellence in teaching and learning practices as well as commitment to student success.
- Past record of forging strong working relationships with peers and co-workers.
- Indication of contribution to a strong team environment and positive work culture.
- Evidence of commitment to guiding and supporting students toward success.
- Demonstrated ability to work with diverse student populations.
- Excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Strong organizational, problem solving, and analytical skills.
- Previous teaching experience at the post-secondary level and/or adult training experience.

- Knowledge and/or experience in the implementation of emergent curriculum/inquiry based learning and pedagogical documentation.

Salary:

Hourly rate of $57.75.

Application Procedure:

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled:

1. A cover letter outlining relevant experience and qualifications. Please reference areas identified within the contract posting (i.e. fields of demonstrated excellence).
2. A curriculum vitae/resumé outlining relevant experience, educational background
3. Names and contact information for three professional, community, and/or academic references.

Above application materials can be sent to the attention of:

Taina Lickers-Smith, A/ Program & Placement Coordinator, SNP Brantford

Email: taina.lickers-smith@snpolytechnic.com

Please put "IWAP Job Posting" in the subject line.

Or in a sealed envelope mailed or hand delivered, clearly marked "IWAP Job Posting" to:

Six Nations Polytechnic Inc.

411 Elgin Street, Brantford, ON N3S 7P5