We currently have one (1) vacancy, with a particular interest in candidates who bring financial expertise and experience in not-for-profit governance.

Who We Are

Established in 1998, De dwa da dehs nye>s is an Indigenous-designed and Indigenous-governed non-profit health organization. Our mission is to improve the wellness of Indigenous individuals, families, and communities by delivering holistic health services that are culturally safe, trauma-informed, and grounded in Indigenous knowledge, values, and traditions.

Our services include:

- Primary and preventive care
- Mental health and addictions services
- Chronic disease and diabetes management
- Traditional health and healing
- Health education and research

All delivered in a respectful, inclusive, and culturally meaningful environment.

Who We're Looking For

We welcome applications from:

- Indigenous persons preferred but not required
- Persons with a demonstrated and meaningful interest in Indigenous health and wellness
- We are especially seeking applicants with financial acumen who can contribute meaningfully to the fiscal oversight and sustainability of our growing organization. Ideal candidates will have experience in:
 - Financial management or planning within non-profit or community-based organizations
 - Budget development and monitoring
 - Audit and risk management
 - Investment strategy or financial stewardship
 - Interpreting financial statements, balance sheets, and funding reports
 - Supporting or serving on Finance and Audit Committees

A background as a CPA, financial analyst, treasurer, or experience working in government-funded health care environments will be considered an asset but is not required.

Board Commitment

- The intent is for the successful candidate to be mentored into assuming the Treasurer role on the Board of Directors.
- Approximately 10 Board Meetings (in person scheduled for 2.5 hours) and 10 Committee Meetings (virtual scheduled for 1 hour) per year
- Meetings held on a consistent day each month (e.g. First Monday of the Month)
- All meetings will be held in-person at the Hamilton office
- Meetings last approximately
- Plus an annual 1-2 day retreat
